

GUIDE

Accessing the learning management system

Step 1 – Select ‘Access the modules’ on the Digital learning program: The CSP Act – Protecting rights and preventing harm page

Step 2 – First time users, select ‘Create new account’.

The screenshot shows a login page. At the top is the Victorian Equal Opportunity & Human Rights Commission logo and name. Below this are two input fields: 'Username or email' and 'Password'. There is a green 'Log in' button. Below the button is a link 'Lost password?'. Then there is a section 'Log in using your DJCS account:' with a small person icon and a 'Log in' button. Below this is a section 'Is this your first time here?' with a paragraph: 'For full access to this site, you first need to create an account.' Below the paragraph is a green 'Create new account' button, which is highlighted with a red rectangular box. At the bottom of the page, there is a footer with the text 'Cookies must be enabled in your browser' and 'Powered by Moodle Workplace'.

Important

This eLearning module was developed by the Victorian Equal Opportunity and Human Rights Commission (VEOHRC) and is aimed at providing an overview of the Change or Suppression (Conversion) Practices Prohibition Act 2021 (the CSP Act).

Learning objectives:

- Understand 'conversion ideology' and describe how it informs change or suppression practices.
- Understand the key provisions of the CSP Act, including banned practices, criminal offences, and to foster a culture of respect.
- Know the harms caused by conversion practices, supported by evidence on their ineffectiveness and negative impact
- Understand the possible legal and social consequences for individuals or organisations engaging in conversion practices

This digital learning program contains videos, interactive activities and information to enhance your knowledge. This module may take 20 minutes to complete.
