Preventing and responding to workplace race discrimination: a guide for managers

Build your knowledge and confidence to create a fair and inclusive workplace.

In this eLearning module managers will:

- explore what workplace racism is, how it occurs, and its impact

- learn how Victorian law protects people from race discrimination in the workplace

- know their responsibilities in preventing and responding to racism, guided by the positive duty and minimum standards framework.

Promote respect
Prevent harm
Lead change

Duration: 20 minutes

Format: interactive eLearning

Audience: managers and people leaders

Cost: scaled per number of users; contact us for pricing

Foster a respectful, fair, and inclusive culture

Inquire now

Email : education@veohrc.vic.gov.au

Website :
https://www.humanrights.vic.gov.au/education/online-education/

Victorian Equal Opportunity & Human Rights Commission